The Panama City PILOT is a neat paper and a good one, and we miss it when it fails to come. For some reason one or two copies each month is all we get—gets sidetracked somewhere we suppose.—Chipley Verdict.

We assure brother Wilson that a copy of the PILOT is placed in the Chipley bundle each week plainly addressed to the Verdict, and if the subscribers to this paper gets their papers, the Verdict should secure its copy. Better go after the post office authorities there and see why it is not delivered. We are doing our part.
